

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

JOHN P. EGGERT and JOHNNETTE P.
EGGERT,

Plaintiffs,

Case No. 04-CV-73882-DT

v.

EQUIFAX CREDIT INFORMATION
SERVICES,

Defendant.

ORDER STAYING CASE UNTIL DECEMBER 29, 2005

On November 17, 2005, the court conducted a telephone conference in the above-captioned matter. During the conference, the parties requested a brief stay of this case in order to pursue settlement negotiations. The parties having assured the court that they will use this time productively,

IT IS ORDERED that formal proceedings in this matter are temporarily STAYED to allow the parties an opportunity to reach an amicable resolution to this action.¹ In the event a settlement is reached, the parties are DIRECTED to submit a stipulated order of dismissal no later than December 29, 2005. If no order is received by December, 29, 2005, the court will issue a scheduling order which will, among other things, set a discovery deadline of February 28, 2006.
